SHELTERS AND TEEN LIVING PROGRAMS

Homeless for the night?

Call 311 for assistance identifying the closest shelter near you.**

Teen Living Program

162 W. Hubbard St. Suite 400
Chicago, IL 60654
312-568-5700

Residential Programs

- Bronzeville Youth Shelter: Emergency shelter provides minors ages 14-17 a temporary shelter while efforts are made to reunite them with their families or secure alternate living arrangements.
- Belfort House: Located in the Bronzeville neighborhood of Chicago has 24 beds for youth ages 17-21. You may stay there for up to 18 months and are required to be engaged in productive activities such as school, employment, or life skills training.
- Clustered and Scattered Site Apartments: This independent living program is for youth 18-24 who demonstrate the potential for independent living but still need additional support from the agency. 10 youth are able to live in their own apartments for up to 2 years and still maintain all access to TLP's services.

Services also offered include:

- Education- tutoring, referrals to GED programs and alternative schools, help with post-secondary education such as applying for financial aid and applying to schools of interest
- Employment- Assessment of skills and employment history, career interests, assistance developing job readiness skills and finding internships and job placements.
- Assistance with physical and mental health

A Safe Haven

2750 West Roosevelt Road
Chicago, IL 60608
Phone: 773-435-8300

Cannot provide services to those under 18

Transitional Housing

Services:

- Housing facility with the capacity of 406 beds for 210 men, 69 women, and 127 children.
- Single men and women share same-sex rooms, while families are provided with their own rooms.
- Residents have access to meals, healthcare, laundry facilities, and a computer lab.
- Program provides case management services, housing, and meals—assisting clients in achieving self-sufficiency. Generally, it takes less than four months to provide services to our residents, assess individuals' needs and connect them with viable housing. However, this length may vary depending on an individual's progress and needs.

Eligibility:

- Currently homeless or at risk of homelessness, unable to afford other housing options
- No record of violent, arson, or sex crimes

Supportive Housing

Services

- Counseling services and weekly forums addressing issues related to substance abuse and addiction are available for those in recovery from alcohol/drug addiction.
- Computer training instruction helps residents improve employment skills. In addition, assessments of residents' medical needs are also addressed by providing health screenings, annual flu shots, TB testing, diabetes testing, dental referral and referrals to physicians and specialists.

Mercy Home – Youth Residential Program

1140 W Jackson Blvd, Chicago, IL 60607

Intake and referrals: 312-738-9577

Services offered:

- Food, Shelter and Clothing- Mercy Home provides a warm bed for residents and nutritious, home-cooked meals.
- Education- Math and Reading Enrichment, daily tutoring helps our kids to catch up in school and to graduate from high school prepared for their next step.
- Therapy- All of our young people receive individual and group therapy at least once a week. Other types of therapy are offered as well, ranging from grief groups and pets to music and art therapy and therapeutic yoga. Therapy sessions focus on helping each child accomplish the goals that he or she has set with the help of care managers as part of our individualized program.
- Spiritual Development- A child's faith can be a powerful force in their healing. We support children who come to us from a variety of faith traditions, by encouraging a deeper exploration of their own spirituality. Throughout the year, spiritual retreats, celebrations, and faith-based learning help our kids develop this critical dimension of their lives.
- Community Service- We prepare children to become positive members of the community. Our children learn important lessons about themselves and about the world around them through meaningful volunteer opportunities. Our young people have visited nursing homes, stocked a food bank, and written letters to service members overseas.
- Extracurriculars- We offer character-building and culturally-enriching learning opportunities that encourage the personal growth and development of young people. Recent activities include Cooking, Lacrosse, Spoken Word, Gardening, and Dance.
- Vocational and Career Resources- Finding – and keeping – a job gives individuals more confidence and self-reliance, teaches them to be financially responsible, and gives them skills that they will carry throughout their careers. Young people have the opportunity to explore different careers through internships at companies that partner with Mercy Home. We also introduce vocational paths for our youth to gain sustainable employment.
